

multi-faith [spaces]

Symptoms and Agents of Religious and Social Change

Who builds and uses them, how, when and why?

This Interactive Exhibition encapsulates the essence of the project: Multi-Faith Spaces: Symptoms and Agents of Religious and Social Change, a three year collaboration between the Universities of Manchester and Liverpool. It is founded upon thirty two key themes that emerged from a study of over two hundred multifaith spaces, in the United Kingdom and ten other countries.

The Venue

St Alphege Hall, Kings Bench St, London SE1 0QZ with the nearest tube being Southwark

Dates

July 9th, 10th, 11th and 13th, 11am – 4pm with workshops each day at 2.30pm, with refreshments

Opening Event

Tuesday 10th July, 12.30pm – 2pm with Dr. Chris Hewson, Manchester University, Revd Dr. Howard Worsley, London South Bank University, and contributions from the NHS, Police and Prison services, with light refreshments being served

Registration

Catriona Robertson, Convener LBFN
E convener@lbfm.org
M 07903 682 142
W lbfm.wordpress.com
Entrance is FREE

Registration is required for opening event and workshops only